

24 - 26 June 2009

CITY College, Business Administration & Economics Department (BAED)
Thessaloniki, Greece

13th Annual International Conference on Economics & Security

SOUTH - EAST
EUROPEAN
RESEARCH
CENTRE

The University
Of Sheffield.

CITY

Affiliated Institution of the UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD

www.city.academic.gr

Supported by:

University of the West of England

Programme Committee

- Paul Dunne - Co-Chair
University of the West of England, UK
- Eftychia Nikolaidou - Co-Chair
CITY College, Greece
- Ron Smith
Birkbeck College, University of London, UK
- Jurgen Brauer
Augusta State University, USA
- Christos Kollias
University of Thessaly, Greece
- Sam Perlo-Freeman
SIPRI - Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, Sweden

Organising Committee

- Eftychia Nikolaidou - Chair
CITY College, Greece
- Aggeliki Papakonstantinou
CITY College, Greece
- Violeta Sfouri
CITY College, Greece
- Elisa Petridou
CITY College, Greece

Wednesday 24th of June 2009

- 9:00-9:45 Registration and Coffee
(all events take place at Stein Building,
2 Kalapothaki Street)
- 10:00 Departure for the archaeological area of Vergina. Meeting point: Outside Stein Building
- 13:30 Departure for Thessaloniki.
- 14:30 Arrival in Thessaloniki
-
- 17:30-18:00 Opening and Welcome Session
- Paul Dunne,
British University in Egypt (BUE), Cairo and University of the West of England (UWE), Bristol, UK.
- Eftychia Nikolaidou,
CITY College, Affiliated College of the University of Sheffield, Thessaloniki, Greece
-
- 18:00-19:00 Keynote Speech
- Chair: Paul Dunne, British University in Egypt (BUE), Cairo and University of the West of England (UWE), Bristol, UK.
- The Past and Future of Terrorism Research
Todd Sandler, Professor of Economics,
University of Texas at Dallas, USA
-
- 19:00 Cheese and wine Reception

Thursday 25th of June 2009

9:00-10:00 Registration and Coffee

10:00-11:00 Keynote Speech

Chair: Eftychia Nikolaidou, CITY College, Greece

Military Economics

Ron Smith, Professor of Economics,
Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:00 Session 1A:
Defence Procurement, Offsets and Innovation

Chair: Todd Sandler, University of Texas at Dallas, USA

Using Commercial Discipline to Improve Australian Defence Procurement: Misplaced Enthusiasm?

Stefan Markowski and Robert Wylie,
The University of New South Wales at the Australian Defence Force Academy, Canberra, Australia

Defence Innovation in France: The Mirage of a Market- Based Model?

Renaud Bellais,
EADS Astrium/University Paris Sud, France
and
Sylvain Daffix,
French Ministry of Defence and University of Nice, France

Offset Policies in Defence Procurement: Lessons for the European Defence Equipment Market

Gueorgui Ianakiev,
ADIS, Universite Paris-Sud, France
and Nickolay Mladenov,
Member of the European Parliament

Arms Contracts and Offset Policy: The Czech Approach

Vladan Holcner,
University of Defence, Czech Republic

11:30-13:00 Session 1B:
Governance of Oil and Mining in Conflict-prone Environments

Chair: Gilles Carbonnier, Centre on Conflict Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP), The Graduate Institute, Geneva, Switzerland

Extractive Industries in Fragile States: The Role and Potential of Market Incentives and Regulation

Gilles Carbonnier,
*Centre on Conflict Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP),
The Graduate Institute, Geneva, Switzerland*

The Role of the Private Sector in Conflict-Prone Countries: Lundin's Petroleum's Experience in Africa

Christine Batruch,
Vice President Corporate Responsibility, Lundin Petroleum

Wealth Sharing Agreements as a means to address the Resource Curse

Achim Wennmann,
*Centre on Conflict Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP),
The Graduate Institute, Geneva, Switzerland*

13:00-14:00 Lunch break

14:00-15:30 Session 2A:
Determinants of Defence Spending

Chair: Ron Smith, Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

What Drives Military Expenditure? A South African Study

Geoff Harris,
University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban, South Africa

The Demand for Military Expenditure in Egypt

Paul Dunne,
University of the West of England, UK and British University in Egypt (BUE), Cairo, Egypt
and Yasmin Mohamed,
British University in Egypt (BUE), Cairo, Egypt

Defence Budget Allocation and the Prisoner's Dilemma: Should Governments be Myopic or Rational?

Ronen Bar-El, The Open University of Israel, Israel
Kobi Kagan, Bar-Ilan University, Israel
Asher Tishler, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Unobserved Common Factors in Military Expenditure Interactions across MENA countries

Elisa Cavatorta,
Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

14:00-15:30 Session 2B: Economics of Terrorism

Chair: Asher Tishler, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Terrorist Target Substitution: A Dynamic Analysis

Todd Sandler and Patrick Brandt,
University of Texas at Dallas, USA

The Economics of Terrorism: Lessons from Spain

Thomas Baumert,

Universidad Complutense de Madrid & Universidad Catolica de Valencia 'San Vicente Martir', Spain

Perceptions and Attitudes to Terrorist Shocks: Evidence from the UK

Carlos Bozzoli and Catherine Muller,

*German Institute for Economic Research (DIW), Berlin,
Germany*

Terrorism and Stock Market Volatility Dynamics in Turkey: A DCC Analysis

Sibel Bali Eryigit and Kadir Yasin Eryigit,

Uludag University, Bursa, Turkey

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

16:00 -17:30 Session 3a: Economics of Conflict

Chair: Christos Kollias, University of Thessaly, Volos, Greece

Budget Allocation under Uncertainty in an Arms Race between a Developed Country and a Less Developed Country or a Coalition of Countries

Hadas Shabtay and Asher Tishler,

Tel Aviv University, Israel

All-Volunteer Force (AVF) versus Conscription: The Effect of the Recruitment Method on Military Strength with an Application to Israel

Sasson Haddad and Asher Tishler,

Tel Aviv University, Israel

Three Types of Victory and Two Types of Defeat: Military versus Economic Objectives in War
Ioannis Salavrakos,
University of Ioannina, Greece and London Metropolitan University, UK

Forced Migration as a Deterrence Strategy in Civil Conflict
Paola Palacios,
Toulouse School of Economics, France

16:00 -17:30 Session 3B: Economics of Terror and Violence

Chair: Thea Harvey, *Economists for Peace and Security (EPS),
New York, USA*

A Note on the Interaction Between Fear and Hate
Mansoob Murshed Syed,
Institute of Social Studies (ISS), The Hague, The Netherlands & University of Birmingham & Centre for the Study of Civil War, PRIO, Oslo, Norway

Hyperbolic Discounting, Dummy Equilibria and Cycles of Public Disturbances and Policies
Ronen Bar-El and Mordechai Schwarz,
The Open University of Israel, Israel

Socioeconomic Determinants of Crime in Turkey: A Panel Data Analysis
Yulide Yildirim, Rifat Ortac, and Selin Guney, Gazi University, Ankara, Turkey

20:15 Conference Dinner
Meeting point: Outside Stein building

Friday 26th of June 2009

10:00-11:30 Session 4A: Defence Spending & Growth

Chair: Eftychia Nikolaidou, CITY College, Greece

Military Spending and Growth in Developing Countries

Paul Dunne,

University of the West of England, Bristol, UK and British

University in Egypt, Cairo, Egypt

and

Mehmet Uye,

University of the West of England, Bristol, UK

‘Guns and Butter’ Revisited: the Role of Deterrence

Giacomo De Luca and Petros Sekeris,

Centre for Research in the Economics of Development

(CRED), University of Namur, Belgium

An Empirical Analysis on the Influence of Defence R&D Investment upon Economic Growth

Li Zeng, Ang-yu Hou, and Yun-zhuang Zhang,

National University of Defence Technology, Changsha,

Hunan, China

Economic Dimensions of European Security

Irene Kyriakopoulos,

National Defense University, Washington, USA

10:00 -11:30 Session 4B: Civil Wars and Conflicts

Chair: Sam Perlo-Freeman, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (SIPRI), Stockholm, Sweden

Costing the mobilisation and maintenance of armed conflict: Adding a nuance to feasibility claims in conflict dynamics

Achim Wennmann,
*Centre on Conflict Development and Peacebuilding (CCDP),
The Graduate Institute, Geneva, Switzerland*

Post-Conflict Demilitarisation and State Fragility: A Case Study from Bosnia-Herzegovina

Steven Zyck,
Post-War Reconstruction & Development Unit, University of York, UK

Accounting for Civil Wars and Modeling External Intervention

Vincenzo Bove,
Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

Foreign Aid vs Military Support in the War on Terror

Jean-Paul Azam and Véronique Thelen,
Toulouse School of Economics, Toulouse, France

11:30-12:00 Coffee break

12:00-13:30 Session 5A: Economics of Conflicts

Chair: Ron Smith, Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

Dynamics of Wars

Ali Tasiran and Ron Smith,

Birkbeck College, University of London, UK

The Influence of Conflict on the Demand for Education in the Basque Region

Olaf de Groot,

German Institute for Economic Research (DIW), Berlin, Germany

and

Idil Goksel,

Bocconi University, Milan, Italy

Armed Conflict and Markets: Some Empirical Findings in the Case of the Israeli Military Offensive in the Gaza Strip

Christos Kollias, Stefanos Papadamou and Apostolos
Stagiannis,

University of Thessaly, Volos, Greece

Environmental Conservation and Conflict

Giacomo De Luca and Petros Sekeris,

*Centre for Research in the Economics of Development
(CRED), University of Namur, Belgium*

12:00-13:30 Session 5B: Economics of Milex

Chair: Paul Dunne, University of the West of England, Bristol, UK and British University in Egypt, Cairo, Egypt.

Corruption, Military Spending and Growth

Giorgio d'Agostino, Paul Dunne and Luca Pieroni,
University of Perugia, Italy & University of the West of England, Bristol, UK

Military Expenditure and Inequality in the Middle East and North Africa

Hamid Ali,
American University in Cairo, Egypt

The Long-Run Linkages between Defence, Education and Health Expenditures and Economic Growth: Evidence from Turkey

Kadir Yasin Eryigit, Uludag University, Bursa, Turkey
Sibel Bali Eryigit, Uludag University, Bursa, Turkey
Ufuk Selen, Usak University, Turkey

13:30-14:30 Lunch break

14:30-16:30 Session 6: Closing Session

Chair: Eftychia Nikolaidou, CITY College, Thessaloniki, Greece

Trends in Global Military Expenditure

Sam Perlo-Freeman,
Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (SIPRI), Stockholm, Sweden

An Explanation of the Poverty and Inequality Dynamics Over Violence in the Seven Biggest Cities in Colombia: A
Panel Data Analysis

Alexander Cotte Poveda,
*Georg August University of Goettingen, Germany &
Universidad de La Salle, Colombia*

Power Sharing Negotiations in the Angola Peace Process

Ricardo Sousa,
African Studies Center (ISCTE), Lisbon, Portugal

Conflict, Insecurity and the Air Travel Industry: Some Empirical Results

Jurgen Brauer, Augusta State University, USA
Paul Dunne, University of the West of England, Bristol, UK
& The British University in Egypt, Cairo, Egypt
Ana Pulido, Economists for Peace and Security (EPS), New York, US.

16:30 Closing of the Conference

Saturday 27th of June

10:00 Departure for Chalkidiki, Porto Carras Hotel (Optional)

Meeting point: Outside Stein building

A bus will be waiting to take us to Porto Carras Hotel in Neos Marmaras, Chalkidiki. Participants are required to arrange the payment for the hotel accommodation in Chalkidiki at the Registration desk during the 1st day of the Conference.

There will be another bus to bring us back to Thessaloniki on Sunday the 28th early afternoon (Departure from the hotel at 12:30).

